

Exhibits and Events of 2009 - ANNANDALE NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE

Exhibits:

Feb. 16 – April 19: “Trinkets & Treasures” on loan from area collectors

May 18 – Aug. 30: “Something Old, Something New” an exhibit showcasing wedding gowns from the Permanent collection

Sept. 11 – Nov. 1: “Wilde-ly Inspired Art” an exhibition of art work directly inspired by the Aesthetic interior of Annandale N.H.S. by area artists

Nov. 27 – Jan. 10, 2010: “Christmas Greetings” a look at the evolution of Christmas Cards from penny cards to e-cards

Special Days:

Sun., Jan. 11: Mayor’s Levee

Mon. Feb 16: Exhibit opening: Trinkets & Treasures

Fri., Feb. 20: Lunch & Learn: “The Tillson’s of Tillsonburg” – Laurel Beechey, guest speaker ”

Sun. Mar. 8 Free Admission Ladies Day
In honour of International Women’s Day we are offering free admission to all women.

Fri., Mar. 20: Lunch & Learn: “For the betterment of Home & Country: The Women’s Institutes of South Oxford County 1897-1945”
– Rebecca Beausart, guest speaker (tickets required)

Fri., Apr. 17: Lunch & Learn: “Fire & Flood- Early disasters in Tillsonburg – Laurel Beechey, guest speaker (tickets required)

Fri., May 15: Lunch & Learn: “With this ring: the history of wedding traditions” – Patricia Phelps, guest speaker (tickets required)

Mon., May 18: Exhibit opening – “Something Old ~ Something New” – To celebrate International Museum Day, we will be opening this exhibit of Wedding dresses from the permanent collection.

Sat. May 23: Open House for “Doors Open Oxford”

Wed. July 1: Canada Day Open House – Tour Tillsonburg’s National Historic Site – Annandale House. Enjoy a variety of activities, crafts & quizzes, children’s games on the lawn and Canada Day cake.

Fri. Sept.11: Exhibit Opening – “Wilde-ly Inspired Art” – A wine and cheese event. Come meet the artists whose work is showcased in this unique exhibit of Artwork inspired by Annandale House’s Aesthetic Interior

Fri. Nov. 27: Exhibit Opening - “Christmas Greetings” – Join us in the changing gallery for the opening of the Christmas exhibit as we officially begin the Christmas season at Annandale N.H.S.

Special Activities:

Mon. May 18: “Museum Day Otter Find” – find all the toy Otters hiding in Annandale House. Free Admission and prizes to be won.

Fri. Oct. 23: Mary Anne’s Crazy Tea – what you have for tea depends on how well you Solve our riddles. Fun for everyone! Advance tickets only.

Nov. 27 – 29: Down Home Country Christmas Yuletide Festival

Nov. 27 – Jan. 10/10 “Christmas at Annandale”- the halls have been decked in Yuletide Splendour. Always something NEW!